Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied - Two Tier Voting
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company does not have the policy to limit tenure of Independent Director to a cumulative term of 9 years. The Board through the Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("NRC") evaluate annually the independence, competency and contribution of the Independent Directors to the Group using the criteria specified in the Paragraph 1.01 and Practice Note 13 of the Main Market Listing Requirements to determine whether the Director is independent from Management and free of any business and other relationship that could materially interfere with or could be perceived to materially interfere with the exercise of the Directors unfettered or independent judgement. The Board has assessed the independence of all Independent Non-Executive Directors of the Company during financial year 2020, and has determined that all Independent Non-Executive Directors remain objective and independent. The Company's Independent Non-Executive Director, Mr Au Thin An @ Low Teen Ann ("Mr Low") has served the Board for more than 17 years. The Board obtained the shareholders' approval through two-tier voting for Mr Low to continue serving the Board as Independent Director at the Company's 17th Annual General Meeting held on 23 July 2020 based on the following justifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none">a. Mr Low fulfills the criteria under the definition of "Independent Director" as stated in the MMLR of Bursa Securities, and thus, able to function as a check and balance, bring an element of objectivity to the Board;b. His tenure with the Company has neither impaired nor compromise their independent judgement and ability to act in the best interest of the Company. He continues to remain objective and is able to exercise independence judgement in expressing his

	view and participating in deliberations and decision making of the Board and Board Committees in the best interest of the Company; c. His vast experience in a diverse range of business and has good understanding of the Company's business operations; d. He could continue to exercise due care during his tenure as Independent Director of the Company and carried out his professional duties in the interest of the Company and shareholders; e. He has devoted sufficient time and commitment to discharge his responsibility and professional obligations as Independent Director; and f. He does not have any business dealings with the Group.
